Eat + Drink

well

Food and beverage at Greenfields Albert Park encompasses a healthy, nourishing and honest offering.

'Eat colourfully' is the inspiration behind the menu, developed by Head Chef and part owner Nick Korceba. Having previously worked in renowned Melbourne restaurants like Maha and St Ali, Nick has developed a suite of menu items for foodies who love to indulge in fine food that Melbourne is renowned for.

The fundamental philosophy is to provide our guests with a healthy alternative whilst still maintaining broad appeal, and not sacrifice on taste and quality. As we live in the abundant state of Victoria, each ingredient is sourced locally, where possible, and sustainably to support surrounding communities.
